DeMolay

is what the members want it to be. How much you participate will determine the value of your membership.

Starting in 1919 from a group of nine teenagers in Kansas City, Missouri, DeMolay has grown to nine countries and all fifty states, with over 1,000,000 young men having been members.

Based upon the life of Jacques DeMolay, who was the last Grand Master of knights known as the Knights Templar, the Order of DeMolay today teaches loyalty, brotherhood, responsibility, cooperation, and leadership skills.

DeMolay!

An organization for young men of the 00's which provides the opportunity to have fun, learn, lead, and grow, while making new friends.

Instructions for filling out the Application for Membership

1. Put your name in the blank on the front panel under "Application for membership by:"
2. The first 13 questions are general questions about you. Fill them out as completely as possible.
3. Question 14 asks for three references to friends your age whom you have known for at least one year. Your friends will be contacted only if it becomes necessary to investigate your petition.
4. Your father's name and your mother's name are necessary for our information archives. They are both invited to attend your initiation if they so desire.
5. Questions 17 and 18 ask if your father is either a Senior DeMolay or a Master Mason. If so, please tell us where he was a DeMolay or in what lodge he is a Master Mason. Note that it is not necessary that your father be a DeMolay or a Master Mason for you to be eligible for membership in DeMolay.
6. Your signature and a parent's signature are necessary to affirm your intent to join DeMolay and your parent's consent.
7. Either a DeMolay Sponsor's signature or a Masonic Sponsor's signature is necessary for your petition to be considered. If you don't know a DeMolay or Master Mason, please call one of the advisors listed on the front side of the petition and they will help you secure a sponsorship.
8. A lifetime membership fee of $100.00 is required when your petition is turned in. There are no additional dues associated with membership in DeMolay. Make checks payable to:
Texas Hill Country DeMolay
9. Mail your petition and membership fee to:
